1. Daily devotions literature
2. A national broadcast
3. Pertinent christian news via a weekly or monthly paper.

In order to be effective these aids must be done well so that our people will be encouraged to make use of them in their Christian witness.

In closing my sincere appreciation and thanks are extended to the members of the Administrative Committee, and the agency representatives who met with us, for their interest and cooperation in this part of the work of our church. May our efforts together be used for the glory of our Lord. "But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord." Jer. 9:24.

Respectfully submitted,

W. G. Vannoy
Moderator

Recommendations

1. That the present plan for the Administrative Committee to assist and supplement the Moderator be continued.
2. That the Subcommittee on Synod Reorganization be continued with present or revised personnel as needed.
3. That the Subcommittee on Goals and Methods be continued with the present or revised membership as needed.

REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON SYNOD ANALYSIS

The 146th General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod, instructed the Administrative Committee to make a self-study report of all of our churches, agencies, presbyteries, and the General Synod. It is not difficult to imagine the enormity of this task, for there is probably no one among us who is sufficient for these things, having a first-hand knowledge of the workings of the entire Synod. Some feel that an outside, secular organization of specialists could better accomplish this task than the Administrative Committee, but the cost for such an undertaking is prohibitive and Synod's directions were that the Administrative Committee undertake this study. The method we have used is to send a questionnaire to twenty-four men who have had a leading part in the life of our church, both as laymen and ministers. At this time, we have received thirteen responses to our questionnaire. In considering what to emphasize in this report, we have included only those matters where there seems to be a consensus in the replies to our questionnaire. Obviously, many men have strong preferences and convictions about other matters, but we are attempting to stress those things which seem obvious to all. If this report seems somewhat negative in emphasis, it is only because if the patient is somewhat ill, he would rather have the doctor concentrate on the particular organs of the body which are troubling him rather than commend him for his general over-all good health.

1- Evangelism

It is the overwhelming consensus of opinion that one of the chief reasons that the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Evangelical Synod has not experienced more numerical growth is the lack of aggressive evangelism. There seems to be a tendency to engage in criticism over various methods with the result that often no method is employed and a defeatist attitude is engendered. These are difficult days to preach the gospel, but the winning of soul is our business as a church. Jesus said, "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." A greater emphasis upon our personal relationship to Jesus Christ in trusting and following Him would automatically result in greater evangelistic effort. What is real to us, we will naturally communicate to others.

It is suggested that all of our churches engage in a definite evangelistic thrust during the coming year, employing methods best suited to each local situation. In addition to such an organized "campaign" there should be a regular emphasis on personal witnessing and on continued attempts to bring the unsaved under the hearing of the gospel. Pastors and sessions need to stimulate the people as to the wisdom of winning souls.

2- The Work of the Sunday School

Reports come of the lack of effectiveness in many of the Sunday Schools throughout our church. Many of the churches seem too willing to settle for poor educational standards, with the Sunday School being poorly organized, poorly supervised and poorly taught. It is felt that some of our weaknesses relating to the lack of evangelism, the failure to teach doctrinal distinctives, and the challenging of our young people are directly related to the poor job being done in many of our Sunday Schools. Sunday Schools need to reevaluate their curriculum, to investigate better teaching materials, to be more selective in choosing teachers, to inaugurate teacher training programs, and generally, to do those things which will make this hour a profitable learning experience for the children and adults of the church. It is suggested that perhaps Christian Training, Inc. could form a team of capable, enthused people who could visit Sunday School board meetings and make known to our people those materials and methods which have been successfully used in other places.

3- Attendance

There seems to be evidence that the Sunday evening services and especially the mid-week prayer meeting is not well attended in the average Reformed Presbyterian Church. Various reasons are given...the hectic pace of modern life, dull stereotypical services, spiritual problems, the failure of church officers to attend, etc. While our church is no worse than other denominations in this regard, it seems to be symptomatic of the general weakness of the church-at-large in spiritual power.

Vital people attract others. We all like the company of those who are alive and enjoying life. Our prayer meetings should be characterized by a spiritual vitality affording to those who come, love, fellowship, spiritual food and communion with God. A movement toward this goal might begin as pastors and officers search their own hearts in this matter.

4- Finances

One of the chief problems causing difficulties between the agencies and the local churches is the matter of finances. The expansion of the agencies and their corresponding larger financial needs and programs has exceeded the growth of the churches. There is the feeling that the agencies embark on large ambitious programs and then pressure or even attempt to shame the churches into the support of "your" institution. Some feel that denominational executives have little appreciation of the problems in the local church. On the other hand, some churches and pastors show virtually no interest and concern for the work of the agencies. Lay people in some of the churches seem to be little informed or involved in the needs of our agencies. In some way mutual trust and loyalty has to bridge the gap between our churches and agencies who need each other.

5- What Commends Us to the General Christian Public?

Many of those who responded to our questionnaire felt that the thing that would commend us most to the Christian public is the simple preaching and teaching of the Word of God. Most liberal churches have long since forsaken the scriptures in their pulpits, and even some churches who believe the scriptures do a shallow job in teaching their people the Word of God. It is in this area that our Reformed Presbyterian Church should commend itself in that the Scriptures are being related to the problems of modern living. In the confusion which abounds on every hand, we need preachers who understand the needs of the people and who are able to proclaim, "thus saith the Lord". Such authoritative preaching must be done "in the Spirit" by yielded men who have an experimental knowledge of the truths they proclaim.

THE ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE
REPORT of the SUB-COMMITTEE on
FUND RAISING AND PROMOTION

- I. The Philosophy behind Promotion and Fund Raising:
- A. The mandate of the Great Commission is given to the Church. We need to emphasize that the Church as ordained of God, must face all that this implies.
 - B. Inter-dependency of local churches and responsibility to each other must be recognized. What cannot be done alone, can be done unitedly. We are all part of one another.
 - C. The Agencies of the denomination are inter-dependent, and should so function. Duplication of effort should be avoided.
 - D. There is a "feedback cycle" between the churches and agencies. Growth of each is inter-dependent. The agencies do help the churches grow. We must all grow together.
 - E. Scriptural teaching on Stewardship of time and substance needs ever to be given proper emphasis from the pulpit. "Teaching them to observe whatsoever I have commanded you." Matt. 28:20
- II. Practical Inter-Action and Relationship between the Churches.
- A. The family-similarity in the Church. As the family may have many members, but ideally has a united stand and purpose, so the denomination. Each organization in the denomination must act as a part of whole, and not in an isolated manner.
 - B. Responsibility to one another. All need to be a part of something bigger than themselves. "No man lives to himself" We are exhorted to, "Consider one another to provoke unto love and good works." Heb. 10:24
 - C. Love for Christ and one another. It was said of the early Church, "Behold how they love one another". Christ confronts us with the practical aspect of our Faith, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I have commanded you". John 15:13,14
 - D. Stewardship is a challenge of our love to Christ. Paul in dealing with this writes, "To prove the sincerity of your love". 2 Cor. 8:8. He indicates their concern for Christ's messengers is a "proof of your love". 2 Cor. 8:24

III. Implementation: - This may be done by:

- A. More prayerful teaching on the doctrine and nature of the Church.
- B. Scriptural indoctrination on prayers, giving and generosity.
- C. While leaving freedom for the individual, suggested programs for giving can be helpful.
- D. Presentation of responsibility as a matter for the whole Church to consider in regard to its whole work.
- E. A suggested percentage basis as a guide for giving could be helpful.
- F. Agencies should be free to conduct their work, being responsible in their actions to relate them to the overall program of the Church.
- G. A voluntary joint committee of Boards and Agencies meeting annually for consideration of programs and budgets.
- H. Where pledges are desirable, consider asking for them on a shorter period, thus encouraging more to share in this manner.
- I. Keep before our constituency various ways they may share in the work of the Church, including the idea of Wills, Trusts, etc.
- J. Consideration of a Denominational wide "Forward" or "Advancement" Program to include needs for capital purposes of Boards, Agencies and the local Church.
- K. An Annual Guide for giving could be suggested such as:

	1969-70
	Needed	From Denomination	Amount	Percent in giving
		%
Covenant College	$235,000	75%	176,250	22%
Covenant Seminary	218,849	80%-85%	175,080	22%
World Pres. Missions	510,000	60%-65%	306,000	40%
Natl. Pres. Missions	100,000	95%	95,000	12%
Christian Training Inc	22,000	80%	17,600	2%
Synod Administration (Inc. travel where not covered)	16,000	100%	16,000	2%
	$1,093,849		$785,930	100%

IV. Suggested Ideas:

- A. Consider a joint committee of all Boards and Agencies, two members to be appointed by each, to consider problems of common concern. To gain an understanding of the needs, operation, etc. of each other.
- B. Consider a central mailing to be available for Boards and Agencies desiring to use it.
- C. Consider a joint monthly bulletin giving pertinent information about each Board and Agency. It could include financial reports of income, disbursements and needs.
- D. Seek to make promotional material more representative of denomination. See that it varies from time to time.
- E. Endeavor to encourage giving on a personalized basis as it relates to missionaries or projects.
- F. Consider joint meeting of the Boards and Agencies in the Fall to become better acquainted with each other as to the operation and personnel.
- G. Consider special appeals thru Sunday School and Church, to be arranged so as not to conflict with each other.
- H. Suggest to Presbyteries to impress on men accepting calls to recognize their responsibility to encourage the local church in relation to the total program of Synod.

THE HOUSTON MISSION

HOUSTON, KENTUCKY

Dear Friends:

"But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us." II Corinthians 4:7

It has been a long time since we last wrote you, but we'll try to catch you up on some of the latest events here at Houston.

The Board of Home Missions met here on the 26th of September with seven Board members present and six visitors. It was a real encouragement to have these men come and discuss the problems of the mission and make more definite plans for the new school building. They also helped to accomplish quite a bit of work and repairing that needed to be done, especially the building of a sidewalk and some more wiring. (Now there is a working mission Board! Ed.)

This past summer we entertained many visitors from quite a few states, namely Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois, New Mexico, Texas, and Ohio.

Mr. McNutt plans to begin his deputation trip on November first, beginning in the Philadelphia area, speaking, showing pictures of the work, etc. His schedule for Philadelphia is as follows:

Nov. 5 - Willow Grove Sunday School	Nov. 8 - Third Church
5 - Warminster A. M. Service	9 - Fifth Church
6 - Lansdale P. M. Service	12 - King of Prussia A. M. Service
7 - Beechwood Community R. P. Church	12 - Quarryville P. M. Service

Please pray for journeying mercies and success in this tour of the Reformed Presbyterian Churches.

The Staff has been doing a fine job in caring for the children here. We have 33 children living in the dormitory. Miss Norma and Miss Rosie worked very hard to win third prize in the school fair held at Jackson. Laura Turner and Mrs. Canann continue to do a good job of feeding and caring for the children in so many ways.

We ask your prayers for needed workers here. It would be best if we had a couple; the wife to help cook and other activities, the husband would help with maintenance work as well as help supervise the boys. The Lord is able to supply the need, and we look to Him.

Thank you for your prayers and interest concerning Stanley McNutt. He is getting along fine now and one more visit to Lexington should be sufficient.

We expect to bring to a close our meetings at LeRose tabernacle on the 28th of October due to cold weather and no heat in the building.

And now we say good-bye till next time. Hope it won't be quite so long between letters.

Yours in Christ,
Houston Staff

(Do you want to have a part in this work? Pray, as requested in each letter from the Staff. If the Lord prompts you to send some of your tithes and offerings for Houston Mission, send them to the General Secretary, check payable to Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America. You will receive a prompt acknowledgement, deductible for Income Tax.)

REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN NORTH AMERICA, GENERAL SYNOD

Rev. Harry H. Meiners Jr.
General Secretary

1818 Missouri Avenue
Las Cruces, New Mexico

August 29, 1961

Dear Pastors, Missionary Societies, Youth Groups, etc:

Here are suggested needs for prayer during September. If you have a special request for your church for October, send it to me to arrive by September 25 so we can all join you in prayer.

Week of September 3 -- Let us give thanks for answered prayer in the safe arrival of Daniel Mark Sneller at Pusan, Korea on August 25. Mother and son are well and we rejoice in God's blessing... Cards of congratulation may be sent (4¢ regular mail, 7¢ Air Mail) to Rev. & Mrs. Alvin Sneller, World Presbyterian Missions, APO 59, San Francisco, California.

Week of September 10 -- As students take up their books again for study, let us pray that they may study to the glory of God, understand how to use the knowledge they obtain in His service, may understand that He who inspired the writers of the Bible has given us knowledge of the universe and that these, properly understood, do not contradict one another. Pray that God will call some of our young people into His service.

Week of September 17 -- Let us uphold in prayer the Bethel Reformed Presbyterian Church in Sparta, Illinois and its pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Robert W. Stewart. This is one of our oldest congregations, but progressive and growing. Pray that as God's Word is faithfully preached and taught the Spirit shall use it for the regeneration of souls and the growth of Christians.

Week of September 24 -- Continue to pray that God will call a young couple to go to India to replace Dr. and Mrs. John C. Taylor, Sr. Uphold the Board of Foreign Missions in prayer as they seek such a couple and make important decisions.

- o - o -

Now some denominational news for the pastors and others:

1. The wiring project at Houston has been completed. $206 was sent to me for this and I do not yet know the entire cost.
2. The Minutes of the 1961 General Synod have been printed and will soon reach you by mail. Rev. Charles Holliday is mailing them to all our churches.
3. The enclosed Bulletin News Supplement will give you some news of our Evangelical Presbyterian brethren (they changed the name at their Synod). There was progress in their discussions of union with us, but no definite action taken at this time.
4. Missionary finances for this month (as of today) are as follows:

	Needed	Received
Foreign Missions	$1,700.00	$506.24
Home Missions	875.00	647.69 *

* $32.50 of this was specified for the wiring at Houston, $250.00 of it was a bequest to be used as the Board of Home Missions sees fit.

As you can see, this was a poor month for missionary giving. We cannot meet our obligations to our missionaries very well this way. Let us pray more that God will lay it upon the hearts of His people to support His work for His glory. We DARE NOT go backward.

May we have another reminder from the pulpit that some have not yet paid their Advocate subscriptions for the coming year? Or isn't the Advocate worth paying for?

"BE ANXIOUS FOR NOTHING;

but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto GOD."

To Pastors, Missionary Society heads, and others in our churches:

Here are prayer suggestions for the month of November, a little late coming because of the press of other duties upon the General Secretary.

Week of Nov. 5 -- Please uphold Rev. William McNutt as he presents anew the work of the Houston Mission in the churches of the Philadelphia area. You have his schedule.

Also for special services in our Pittsburgh church; Dr. Rayburn.
Week of Nov. 12 -- Pray for the men of our church who will be meeting in Indianapolis Tuesday and Wednesday. The following Boards will meet: Foreign Missions, Trustees of General Synod, Church Extension, and Pension Plan. Pray for Divine wisdom for them and an eye single to God's glory. Pray that their presence may be an encouragement and a blessing to our Indianapolis congregation.

Week of Nov. 19 -- Pray for Chapel Reformed Presbyterian Church, Beaver, Pa. This is one of our smaller congregations, asking us to pray for their growth and for development of spiritual leadership now and for the future. At a recent morning service attendance reached 61, with 31 that same evening.

Week of Nov. ²⁶19 -- Pray for the ministry of the slides of our work in Korea. Reports thus far are very good -- they give information such as we have not previously had about this field.

Pray for the new fifteen-minute radio broadcast in Las Cruces, New Mexico each Lord's Day at 8 A. M. This is sponsored by our congregation in that city.

- - - - -

I have not included this above, but will here--many of you who have been in our church for a time know and remember Miss Susan Cunningham, one of the founders of the Houston Mission. She is living with two of her sisters in Topeka, Kansas and has not been well. She needs care at all times and now is unable to sign her name. Let us pray for this saint and servant of God.

Recently I mimeographed copies of the enclosed Brief Historical Sketch of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. There are plenty of copies of this available, so don't hesitate to ask for more if you need them.

Some of our congregations have received new members recently? Have you acquainted them with the Reformed Presbyterian Advocate? Let me know how many complimentary copies you desire and let's try to get these new members of our family to subscribe to our magazine.

The General Secretary

REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN NORTH AMERICA, GENERAL SYNOD
1818 Missouri Avenue, Las Cruces, New Mexico

Income for both Foreign and Home Missions for October were less than needed. So if you wonder if there are needs, if your church can or should give more, if some organization in your congregation may have a project - - - the answer is YES.

In answer to inquiries, I have asked the U. S. Post Office in Washington and the Army Postal Service if Christmas packages can be sent to missionaries in Korea at the APO address in San Francisco. The answer is no, they cannot. Tell your people this, for some may wonder.

YOU'LL BE PLEASED T O O

WHEN you hear about the R. P. Youth Camp.

Any young person from 10 years on up may come.

It will be at the Baptist State Camp, 7 miles north of Pinckneyville, Ill. on Route 127.

It begins at 4 o'clock on Monday, July 30 and lasts for five big days. Camp closes on Saturday August 4 at 1 P.M.

The Main Speaker will be Rev. Les Black of the High School Evangelism Fellowship. You know Les. is a Christian MAGICIAN and he has some of the best magic tricks you ever saw.

And it costs only $13.00. You pay $2.00 when you send in your Registration. The sooner you send it in the better. Then you pay $11.00 when you get down to camp. This provides for insurance, registration fee, board, room and use of the grounds.

There will be Bible Studies in the morning. In the afternoon there will be all kinds of sports. Volley ball, swimming, basketball, ping-pong---and on and on. There will be a contest all through the camp week too. The contest is a big secret. Everybody will be busy every minute of the day.

We furnish almost everything, but you would get along better if you bring
